

JANUARY CLEAN SWEEP SALE

Begins Saturday, Jan. 21 - LASTS 15 DAYS - Ends Saturday Feb. 4.

This is not a Mill End Sale, but it is a Genuine Clean Sweep Sale.

We are determined to invoice fewer goods this season than ever, and in order to do so we will begin a Clean Sweep Sale that will save more money to the prudent shopper than anything that has ever been presented to the people of Ethridge, Lawrence and surrounding counties. We carry no trashy goods. Our merchandise has always been a pride to us, and our many new customers are our best advertisers.

Think of the date, Saturday January 21. Think of the sale, think of your wants, and then remember the Bargains that we are offering, for we intend to close out all winter goods at prices never before heard in this section. It has always been our boast that we carry no old stock over, and we do not intend to carry any over this year. This sale is strictly for 15 days only! Do you want the best values? If so be one of the first to come and make your selections. We include in this sale all of our immense stock, nothing reserved and everything that can possibly be placed conspicuously will be displayed so that you will have no trouble in making your choice. We must cut down this stock to make room for our spring goods.

Hon Thomas McClary

Hon. Thomas McClary will entertain the people at Crockett Opera House one night Feb. 4th. You can not afford to miss this wonderful opportunity to hear one of the great if not the greatest man who graces the stage of the American people today.

McClary has the humor of an Arcturus Ward combined with the rarer oratory and learning of a Wendell Phillips Nature has endowed Mr. McClary with a face and figure like that of Sol Smith Russell and the same power with which to make an audience laugh or cry. Personal References:—William J. Bryan, Bishop, S. M. Merial Chicago, J. W. Dong, Bishop Charles Fowler Buffalo, Rev. Jabez Brook D. D. Prof. of Greek in university of Minn., and I have a dozen other personal references of great men throughout the United States but do not believe it necessary to mention them in Detail.

Married.

A most beautiful wedding was that of Mr. T. B. Smith and Miss Marcella Hagan, at the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening Jan. 24th. Rev. J. T. Redmon officiating in a most impressive manner. Appropriate music was rendered by Miss Edna Neeley and Mr. Jas. Gilmore. Under the skillful hands of Mrs. W. C. Parkes and others, the church was most artistically decorated. Miss Hagan made a beautiful bride, groomed in handsome white satin with trimmings of lace, she wore a bridal veil and carried in her hand a prayer book, presented by Dr. Hunter of Nashville.

Miss Bessie Hagan of Pulaski was maid of honor. Miss Annie Mafo Polk of Columbia and Miss Brownie Lock of this place were brides maids, looking lovely in toilets of white silk. Mr. Clarence Lock was best man and Messrs Tom Helton and Will Harvey were groomsmen, Messrs Clarence Harmon and Charles Spence ushers. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride to which one hundred and fifty invitations were issued.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were assisted in receiving their friends by Misses M. McClanahan, Gene Howell and Mary Ella Cannon. A marriage register was kept by Miss Francis Gilmore; and dainty and elegant refreshments were served by Madamess T. S. Springer and S. A. Carrol.

The house was elaborately decorated in green and white. The presents received by this popular young couple were numerous and handsome showing the high esteem in which they are held by a large circle of friends who wish for them all that life may have of love happiness and prosperity. May their lives be sweeter happier and holier on account of this union of hearts and hands; and may they indeed be, "Two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one." XXX.
